RARE OLDIES VIDEO FROM THE FILM " STORMY WEATHER " WITH MR BILL ROBINSON ! Bill Bojangles Robinson (May 25, 1878 - November 25, 1949) was an American tap dancer and actor of stage and film. Robinson was born in Richmond, Virginia to Maxwell, a machine-shop worker, and Maria Robinson, a choir singer. He was raised by his grandmother after both parents died when he was an infant—his father from chronic heart disease, and his mother from natural causes. Details of Robinson's early life are known only through legend, much of it perpetuated by Bill Robinson himself. He claims he was christened "Luther"—a name he did not like. He suggested to his younger brother Bill that they should exchange names. When Bill objected, Luther applied his fists, and the exchange was made. At the age of six, Robinson began dancing for a living, appearing as a "hooper" or song-and-dance man in local beer gardens. He soon dropped out of school to pursue dancing as

The image shows a music player interface. At the top, there is a playback control bar with buttons for shuffle, previous, play/pause, next, and repeat. The current track is 'Zawinul: Volcano For Hire' by Friedrich Gulda and Joe Zawinul, from the album 'Music For 2 Pianos'. Below the playback bar, the album cover is shown, along with the title 'Music For 2 Pianos' and the duration '3 LÅTAR · 41 MINUTER'. There are buttons for 'CD-info' and 'Importera CD'. The main part of the interface is a track list table with columns for 'Titel', 'Tid', 'Artist', 'Album', and 'Genre'. The third track, 'Zawinul: Volcano For Hire', is highlighted in red. At the bottom, there is a summary: '3 låtar, 41 minuter, 436,4 MB'.
